Escondido - Monday 1912.

My dear Mrs Grandy.

It has been such a long time since we seemed to have time to quietly sit down and write a letter.
I am going to try to do that, now.
Don't think your carels, apples, and lastly the sack of nuts, have not been appreciated - I was away on a hard morning car when the apples came. Didn't get many of them but know they were fine.
and I thought with much appreciation of the hands that gathered packed and sent them to us.
& you deserved an immediate answer but Jennie has been busy with the children & they haven't

CM

she is all pink and white a real pretty baby but oh so spoiled - Jane simply adores her & Paul is not far behind so together she is a little ruler I'll tell you. Giles thinks so much of her too and it's useless to say what the Gaanel mother thinks of these 2 precious babies. Wish you could come in for a visit with us.
 We want to get a little Christmas tree & put all the love & joy into the occasion as we can - only wish Frank and Raymond <sup>his wife</sup> could be with us.

have stopped several times to fix the children's pay things. so if I am disconnected and seem slow don't be surprised. Oh but my stomachs talk back to me & kinder wish I hadn't have feel it.

been so very well and I had to come home from the last place sick. My stomach went back on me, with the same old attending troubles, so today is my first day up and I just ate the first food for 2 days so you can imagine I'm not overly sly - I am sorry to have to have so much time just now, when I wanted to do things for Christmas. But I can't help it. I am sitting in the warm sunshine which keats stove warmth. Jane is picking out nuts for some candy. Donald is so cunning - is beginning to talk at last. he is a dashing child - has had several bad nights with cramp. let me tell you his Father was very attentive to him.
Little Janet sits in the buggy with her little blue bonnet on - the one that took the prize this year.

am wondering how you came out in the Law suit with Mr. Keller. Things don't always prove what it seems don't it.
Well I hope you will be able to recover what's right. wonder if you have moved yet. where are you going?
it must be fun to pack & move again.
I don't relish the job. How is Mrs. Sample & children. well, I hope. Some little ones I hope she will not be sick again. Jennie mailed some little remembrance boxes to the children today. I haven't been able to get out the post mail. by nursing care, one after the other puts me out for a while, yet I was anxious to keep the post boiling. guess I'll rest for a while.
Write & tell the price of the milk & I'll remit.
Would love to see you & if I hadn't had this spell would have gone up to J. A.
Last week. will have to go sometime soon will try to find you. Jennie gives me as much love to each and all with Jennie Young.
